f look in thy face, and I long so to live; But, ah! hast thou room for an idle newcomer, 2

o Summer! mry beautiful, beautiful Sum-

With all things to take and nothing to with all things to take of thy dear loving The wine of thy scashine, the dew of thy

And with nothing to give but the deafness Begot in the depth of an utter despair?

The black spider sits in her low loom and

The blue-bird that trills her low lay in the Provokes from the robin a merrier glee; The rose pays the sun for his kiss with her And all things pays tithes to thee-all hings but me.

The butterflies, hasten to make their places good.

The violet, always so white and so saintly; The cardinal, warming the frost with her to history. Powers has been a success. The ant, keeping house at her sand-hearth

Reproaches my idle and indolent ways. When o'er the high east the red morning And driving the amber of starlight be-

The land of enchantment I leave, on awak-Is not so enchanted as that which I find. And when the low west by the sunset is flat-And locust and catydid sing up their best, Peace comes to my thoughts, that were used their nest.

The green little grasshopper, weak as we And canst thou. O summer! make room for With all things to take, and with nothing Roomonly to wrap her hot cheeks in thy And on thy daizy-fringed pillows to lie, And dream of the gates of the glorious Where never a rose of the roses shall die!

MISSISSIPPI.

Water Valley is to have a skating rink. The Panola Star says the Tallahatchi river is overflowing its banks.

From the Falcon we learn that the Ko Kinx have been haning loyal men-in effagy

The Prairie News says J. B. White, recently appointed Sheriff of Chickasaw county, The Vallonian says Mr. A. W. Whitaker of Grenada was killed by attempting to get upon a freight train while in motion on the

The Editor of the Mail speaks from experi-The Aberdeen Examiner says the hand-

J. A. Orr, Judge 7th District. N. Milisaps, Judge 5th District. C.C. Shackelford, Judge 11th District. . S. Fisher, Judge 12th District. Robt. Leachman, Judge 6th District.
0. Davis, Judge 10th District. B. B. Boon, Judge 9th District.

RULES OF PRACTICE. 1. Counsel are not to be interrupted fallst examining witnesses, or arguing questions of law or fact. Interruptions must be addressed to the Court. 1 Causes will be managed by the leading Counsel, and Counsel commencing, will con-clade the examination of witness.

eet professional jurors, men of bad charac-er and all persons who are defendants on

It. Instructions by the Court, to the jury. will be given when the testimony closes, and the jury.

What a Republican Paper Has to Say About the Hotel Amalgamation Scheme.

There is yet just cause to tear for the fulling if the bill, forcing the negro into the hotels, railroad cars, churches, concert halls and all other public places, should become alaw. We are not advised as to who the hotels, railroad the hotels, railroad cars, churches, concert halls benificiaries arising from the collection of the white citizens of the "eastern border" knew nothing of the "apprehended trouble" and the collection of the bill is, but we would received the mand an equal participation for their children in the public schools and other benificiaries arising from the collection of the white citizens of the "eastern border" knew nothing of the "apprehended trouble" and the collection of the bill is, but we would received the mand an equal participation for their children in the public schools and other benificiaries arising from the collection of the co author of the bill is, but we would remind him that no amount of legislative enactments can control the laws of nature. The silly attempt to engraft social equality into the laws of the State will only tend to sink beasts refuse to perform."

THE WEEKLY CLARION.

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1871.

LETTER PROT WILLIAM.

EAST MISSISSIPPI Feb. 18, 1871.

EDITOR CLARION: I have falled in all my etters to you to mention the fact, that the East furnished two distinguished factors of the State Government. Noxubee county contributed Licut. Governor Powers, and grove. These individuals are men of mark. Lieut. Governor Powers was not successful As if the gay harvester meant but to screen as a statesman at first. The truth is, he from his father himself his early training. vention, and was defeated by old Sam Pow-Jesson of trust to the tender-eyed glenner ell of blessed memory. Sam, I learn, has single demerit. That bears in her brown arms the gold of "shuffled off his mortal coil." Isham Stewart f.m. c. did not fall into line with the carpet-baggers at once, whereupon, Powers defined his "position," and declared that the ballot was a dangerous weapon in the hands of the ignorant blacks." This letter At even, the fire-flies trim with their glimmers

The wild, weedy skirts of the field and the wood!

At morning, those dear little yellow-wing
At morning, those dear little yellow-wing
At morning, those dear little yellow-wing
At morning the fire-flies trim with their glimsand staff with the rank of colonel.

Expressing his decided preference for active service in the field, Mr. Davis, whose keen appreciation of character saw his the command of a splento, and amendatory of an Act to raise a revenue to defray the expenses of the govcomment.

Expressing his decided preference for active service in the field, Mr. Davis, whose keen appreciation of character saw his the field in the command of a splendid bright of the field of the fie

field open to them, and bade them put in the sickle and reap. They put in the sickle and In the winter of 1863 Mr. Davis said to a nany supposed that his skill as an "organ-Like doves when an eagle's wing darkens have as much responsibility as possible on cessor. the Radical ticket, and Alcorn was asked Major-General, but Mr. Davis made the appointment and the Confederate Senate conchains upon the people, who had respected firmed it without his knowledge. Chirps, day in and out, for the sweet right him and been too lealent in their judgment of his public acts. He consented to drive man) of the South, the rivets if he were allowed to appoint all troyers, promising the United States Army under his command, to carry out the coutract. Musgrove and Powers now began to takes the chair of his distinguished father, work with Ames for the position of Lieut. Governor. Powers managed Ames better than Musgrove. It is not know how. Some expected large returns; but the Chickasacotton erop. If Musgrove could have "or-Canton has a Lodge of the Independent ganized" Chickasahay river as he did Buck chapel. and Green, and the dear colored people, he

Senate .- "Sic transit gloria mundi." The East has never received the proper has qualified and entered upon the duties of credit, for her statesmen. She has contributed her full share. Among all her great LETTER FROM GEVERAL R. E. ties perhaps forget that Powers is a speakist. Great excitement was produced only a few shot and killed his father-in-law, Elbert days since, by his effort on the Bond queshis name would have been current on the Mu Dear General: The carpet-bagger who was appointed Strand, Mr. Jones says, that he heard Mus-Mayor of Meridian is doing all in his power grove make some eloquent efforts in his cansome parts of Madison county go fox-hunt- Powers has suffered, too; for another Deing. The gentlemen prefer dear hunting." mocrat, equally as wicked as Hardy, raised a tremondous laugh among the "white trash," at Macon, on Powers. . This Democrat is named Lowrey. the wish of every decent white man in the generation, the thanks which are due. Who knows where Mr. Wm. B. Walker, State. Both alike await the inevitable his friends, he will please give us Mr. the merits of the two mighty men of the what may eventually be the best. I Walker's address, in order that he may be East, and to speak my real sentiments think, though, it is plain in the execution entitled an act to regulate the supervision, 24, 1870, and an act supplemental thereto, &c. communicated with in regard to an importouching their ability. I shall be forced to of the laws, that a Convention will be organization and maintenance of a uniform give Powers precedence. His Senatorial called, and a State Constitution formed. System of proceedings of the constitution formed. The Fayette Chronicle says on the night effort on the Bond question decides the mat- The question then is, shall the members of the 3d a negro was discovered in the act ter. Musgrove may come out on that sub- of the Convention be selected from the Clerks of Circuit Courts to issue executions d carrying off two horses from the stable ject in one of his "usual able efforts." If best available men in the State, or from me of the neighboring quarters, from the effect of a gun shot wound, and refused to bors say that in less than three years he qualify themselves to vote, attend the will write a letter to the "magnanimous" Rules of Practice in Circuit Court.

with write a letter to the mississippi, and tell power. Judge Underwood, Messrs. Hunnicutt, &c., would be well game in Marion county.

Mr. Wilson—An act to restrain and prohibit people from other countis from killing game in Marion county. EDITORS CLARION; Will you please in- ing the rule of carpet-baggers. Who knows? pleased, I presume, if the business were sert in your paper the enclosed rules which we have this day adopted for our respective praised our people, and wrote another let- not think this course would be either for speakest, and Musgreve the "organizer."

> Argument of a Republican Paper against the Bill to repeal the Imprisonment clause of the Tax Law.

From the Prairie News.

Lower House of the Legislature, that a 3. Indictments, recognizances, bonds, and an act to raise revenue to defray the ex- succeed in the business which they have the testimony taken by Committing Courts, penses of the government of the State of undertaken. Every man must now look the affirmative vote we notice the name cannot control them, but by united ef- for. Adopted. 5. Motions for security for cost to be en- tive that of B. G. Underwood. Should we may shape and regulate our domestic tered at the return term of the writ, will be entertained after deposit with the Clerk, and affidavits of pauperism traversable. and talter deposit with the Clerk.

An all disables of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the Court to the present the signature of approach of the court to the present the signature of approach of the court to the present the signature of approach of the court to the present the signature of approach the signature of approach the signature of approach the signature of approach to the signature of approach the signature of approach to the signature of approach th Papers are not in Court, the Counsel charged with them, to be fined not less than five dollars. By the repeal of less than five dollars are not in Court, the Counsel charge it will effect all alike. By the repeal of less made the militia, and Gov. Alcorn columbus, Mississippi, to the State line of before the argument of Counsel is made to property-holders of the country, for they hended "organized defiance of the law in 9th, 1870.

The San Domingo Job. Forty thousand men were sacrificed by sily attempt to engraft social equality into the laws of the State will only tend to sink the negro, and the supporters of the bill are not ignorant of the fact. There is no power on earth that can make the engle and the trow associate, and the Legislature cannot force men to do that which birds and obtasts refuse to perform."

Forty thousand men were sacrificed by France in her attempt to take and occupy Hayti. This is the minor portion of the Island of San Domingo. General Grant now proposes to annex the larger portion of the same Island, and, the question is, how many men will we have to sacrifice in keeping the turbulent and ignorant people there in subjection. Philadelphia Age. Gen. G. W. C. Lee the Successor of Gen. R. E. Lee to the Presidency of Washington-Lee Cellege.

INTERESTING DETAILS.

From the N. Y. World. Aside from the honored name he bears. Clarke county surrendered to the public qualifications for the position to which the service the "great organizer," Auditor Musstudents, and friends of the university everywhere has called him.

The oldest son of the family, he received was not appreciated. He ran for the Con- and entered West Point to walk in his footsteps and graduate at the head of his class in 1854 without ever having received a

After serving two years in the engineer corps on the coast of Georgia and Florida ed in 1859 to bureau duty in Washington, where he remained until the secession of Virginia, when he promptly resigned his commission and offered his services to his native State. Entering the Virginia army created some confusion, and the whole carpet with the rank of Major, Mr. Jefferson protect the citizens of Chickasaw county bag delegation flocked to Noxubee to look Davis soon called him to service on his per- in sections where timber is scarce and in farious means Powers began to get into did brigade of veterans. But with that power with the negroes. Ames made him guished his father, he replied that he could sheriff of the county. The sequel belongs of men who had served so gallantly and the history. Powers has been a success. skilfully in the field, while he would Auditor Musgrove devoted himself from gladly take a field appointment with hum-he first, exclusively to the labors of an ble rank and harder service. Being afterorganizer." To his special services the wards ordered to organize the "Local Re-State is due all that may accrue to her glory serves" of Richmond, he went to work with the energy and skill of a thorough master rom the services of Hancock and Chandler. and formed of this Incongruous material-Musgrove laid before these men the great artisans from the shops, department clerks

In the winter of 1863 Mr. Davis said to a distinguished general officer (from whose Musgrove aspired to be Governor, and own lips your correspondent gets it) that such was his high opinion of Custis Lee's ability that if his father were removed from the command of the army of Northern Virizer" would carry him through. There ex- the command of the army of Northern Virsted an absolute and pressing necessity to ginia he should at once make Custis his suc-

> He positively declined a commission as At the surrender he was unquestionably and Grenada counties.

one of the rising men (perhaps the rising In 1865 he was elected to succeed Stonethe officers, and then go out of the position of Governor into the Senate of the United tute, and has since filled the chair with the most marked ability and to the entire satis-States for six years. The bargain was faction of the Board of Visitors, his colstruck, and Ames became surity for the des-struck, and Ames became surity for the des-has declined several calls to be president of important colleges, but now yields to the pressure brought to bear upon him and ment that his presidency will be a brilliant

Only 36 years of age, of splendid talent say that Musgrove was engaged in raising highly cultivated, a hard student, and singusnap beans, artichokes and cauliflowers, and larly like his father both in person and in mental and moral characteristics, it will be strange indeed if he does not carry out the hay river overflowed him, and he could not meet his engagements, while Powers had a make Washington and Lee University a blessing to the land and a fit monument to the great chieftain who sleeps beneath its General Lee delivered his brief address Insurance Company.

An act to the fine of holding the An act to change the time of holding the An act to change the second Judicial Diswould, at this time, be President of the to-day with a grace and dignity which we have never seen in any other man save his Circuit Courts of the second Judicial Dis-Hiustrious father.

> LEE, HITHERTO UNPUB. LISHED.

He Advised "Action" by the Southern People Under the Reconstruction Acts. From the Banner of the South

LEXINGTON, VA., May 23, 1867.

I was very glad to hear from your let-Mayor of Meridian is doing all in his power grove make some coquence that the prosperous control to get up a "Ku Klux" excitement in that vass with a wicked Democrat, named Hardy, in the county of Jasper. Hardy attempted in the relief that has already been burposes.

Mr. Landrum An acc to regulate the revying of taxes by the Boards of County Supervisors, and for other purposes. afforded to disabled and and needy men. purposes.

Mr. Landrum—An act to amend an act the sufferings of all may be relieved. I feel assured that, under the present man-These two illustrious men, Powers and Musgrove, resemble each other in many particulars. Both are adventurers from the

As regards the course Virginia may take under the recent laws of Congress, If I am ever called upon to decide upon to which you refer, it is difficult to see of Mr. I. W. Burch. He was fired upon the should do so, and profer to pay the Bonds with a double barreled shot gan, and he with his Photographs, I fear for Powers.

Mr. Langford—An act to prohibit Justices of the Peace from granting bail in certain cases, and to designate the Judicial officers beat a hasty retreat, leaving the horses be-hand. A day or two after a negro died in he thinks of these illustrious men.

If you get a good chance, ask Alcorn what motion by the former or by the latter. Mr. Newsom—An In this view of the case, I think it is the rings in this State. polls, and elect the best men in their Harrison, Hancock and Marion. ter and did not praise them. I should like the interest of the State or Country. to know his private opinion of Powers, the When the Convention assembles it will cery Courts. be for them to determine what, under the circumstances of the case, it will be best to that of Jane Smith. for the people to do, and their decision should be submitted to by all, as the decision of the State. I look upon the Southern people as acting under compulsion, not of their free choice, and that it > their States, as far as may be in their We notice, in the proceedings of the power to do. I hope that all our friends in New Orof Ambros Henderson, and in the nega- forts, harmony, prudence, and wisdom, is their duty to consult the best interest of Section 11 of the revenue law, it will has made the matter the subject of a special Alabama. have a tendency to bear heavy on the message to the Legislature. When the Gov- Mr. Boulden, An act to amend certain ernor sent his militia officials out he apprewill have to pay their taxes or their prop- the Eastern counties of the State." The erty will be sold under the hammer of the Sheriff, while the non-property-hold-and Ireland except by special enactment. Sheriff, while the non-property-hold-and he therefore, asks for legislation to aler can laugh at the Collector, and tell low the Auditor of Public Accounts to ishim to make the taxes if he can, yet these | sue warrants on such requisitions of Paymaster-General as shall have received the nothing of the "apprehened trouble" until the news came from Jackson with threats

Ladies' paper skirts, an eastern paper says, are becoming common. They cost out fifteen cents. The paper is of great enacity, and does not tear easily.

of militia .- Meridian Gazette.

One of the leading papers of Aberdeen, as early cotland, is under the control of a woman. this reso

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FORTIETH DAY.

MONDAY, Feb. 20, 1871. NOTICE OF THE INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. By Mr. Seal-A bill to be entitled "an Act o make the Sheriffs of Hancock, Harrison, Jackson and Marion counties Assessors as

By Mr. Duncan-A bill to be entitled "an Act to change a portion of the boundary lines between parts of the counties of Yalobushs, Lafayette and Pontotoc, and for other

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. By Mr. Millsaps-"An Act to authorize the Board of School Directors of the counand three years in California, he was ordered in 1859 to bureau duty in Washington, where he remained until the secession of By Mr. Caldwell—An Act to incorporate the town of Bolton in Hinds county. By Mr. Abbott-An Act to regulate the speed on railroads in this State. An Act to

BILLS PASSED.

An Act to change the name of Scrap Bush to that of Glasgon Jordan. An Act to incorporate the town of Nesbitt, DeSoto county. An Act to incorporate the town of Coldrater, in the county of DeSoto. An Act for the relief of A. B. Holt. An Act to incorporate the Pioneer Build-ig and Loan Association of Water Valley. An Act to prevent the sale of spirituous quors in Black Hawk.

To provide for transcripts in counties ed of one or more counties. An Act to enable the Boards of School Directors in the several counties of the Chickasaw Cession to pay the tuition of certain beneficiaries.

FORTY-FIRST DAY.

Mr. Duncan introduced an Act to change the boundary line between Tallahatehie BILLS PASSED. An Act making the Sheriffs of Harrison, Hancock and Marion counties Assessors as An Act to incorporate the Hibernian Be-nevolent Association of the city of Vicks-

> FORTY-THIRD DAY. SENATE. THURSDAY, Feb. 23, 1871. INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Duncan-An act to attach certain territory of Lafayette county to Yallobusha, in this State. By Mr. Dowd -An act to incorporate the trict. An act to prevent railroad companies from running cars on Sunday.

BILLS PASSED.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Landrum-An act entitled an ac supplemental to an act entitled an act to regulate the supervision, organization and maintainance of a uniform system of Pub-lic Education for the State of Mississippi, approved August 8th, 1870.

Mr. Landrum—An act to be entitled an act to relieve W. H. Whitfield, jr., a minor in the county of Lowndes of the disabilities

I trust, that as our political troubles are to regulate the supervision, organization reconciled, and business becomes re-estab- and maintenance of a uniform system of lished and extended in the South, that the sufferings of all may be relieved. I Mr. Spelman—An act to be entitled an praise-worthy work will receive from posterity, as well as from the present Mr. Henderson—An act in relation to the proved October 26, 1866, so far as the same proved October 26, 1866, so far as the same Chickasaw county.

Mr. Hatch—An act for the relief of II. A.

Mr. Newsom-An act to authorize the

Mr. Langford-An act to prohibit Justices Mr. Newsom-An act to regulate Marriagos in this State.

Mr. Wilson—An act to increase the fees qualify themselves to vote, attend the of the jailors of the Counties of Jackson, dental Life Insurance Company.

BILLS PASSED.

An act to amend an act to establish Chan-An act tochange the name of Jane Spencer

FORTY-FOURTH DAY.

SENATE. FRIDAY, Feb. 24th, 1871 Mr. Mygatt introduced An act supplemental to an act to incorporate Canton and Vicksburg Railroad. Lower House of the Legislature, that a bill to repeal so much of an "act entitled leans may do well, and that each may an act to raise revenue to defray the ex-State cases, not to be taken from the lerk's office.

Every man must now look ted to report to this body at the earliest practicable period whether the Revenue and judgment lerk's office.

Every man must now look ted to report to this body at the earliest practicable period whether the Revenue proved July 9th, 1870, as imposes fine upon his own good sense and judgment lerk's office. the character and intelligence of the juror, and imprisonment for the non-payment to push them onward. We have but white and colored, and will, in all cases, reand imprisonment for the non-payment to push them onward. We have but ties of incorporate cities or towns in grant-of taxes," was taken up and passed. In little to do with general politics. We lies of incorporate cities or towns in granting license to assess and collect a tax there-

HOUSE.

sections in the Revenue Law, approved July Mr. Spelman, An act in relation to Super-intendents of Education and School Direc-

Mr. Catchings. An act to amend an Act to provide for the issuance of Certificates of Indebtedness by the State, and for other Mr. Vaughn, An act in relation to land forfeited to the State and corporations in the years 1861, 1862, 1863 and 1864, for taxes due

Mr. Vaughn, An act for the relief of N J. Wilkerson, a citizen of the county of Lafayette county.

By Mr. Street, Resolved, That is the sense of the House that an election of a Legislature and county officers should occur in November next, and the Committee on Elections are hereby instructed to report as early as practicable in accordance with this resolution.

Mr. Lyach moved to refer the resolution to Committee on Elections.

Mr. Boulden moved the previous question, which was sustained, and under the operation thereof, the motion to refer was carried. Yeas 15, navs 18.

Mr. Roane, of Calhoun, Resolved, That it is the sense of the House that an election be held in November, 1871, for members of the Legislature, county and beat officers, Mr. Davis moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Elections. Carried.

FORTY-FIFTH DAY.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 25, 1871. NOTICE OF INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. By Mr. Little, A bill to be entitled an act for the relief of J. B. Woodmansee, of Mon- years ago to-night sister Alice went roe county.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. By Mr. Gleed, S. B. 150, An act for the encouragement of Manufacturers. BILLS PASSED.

An act to incorporate the Vicksburg Benevolent Society. An act to incorporate the King Solomor Baptist Church, of Vicksburg.

HOUSE.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. Mr. Hatch, An act to change the time for Chancery Court District. Mr. Loomis, An act to incorporate the Mount Helm Baptist Church, of Jackson,

Mr. Mitchell, of Pontotoc, An act for the protection of fish ponds, in Pantotoc move the civil disabilities of Mahettable

Williamson, of Union County. ment of partnership contracts in agricultural pursuits and for other purposes.

Mr. Mayson. An act for the speedy enforcement of partnership contracts in agricultural pursuits and for other purposes.

Mr. Mayson. An act for the speedy enforcement of the pillow and mouned as sorrow only bring you to me cre I died. Get the Bible, Mabel, and read to me the twenty-ing debt of Hinds county.

Mr. Landrum, Resolved, That the Auditor if to quiet the tumult that was raging so Mabel did as directed, and as she forced within her heart.

of Public Accounts be requested to report fiercely within her heart. When I enclosed the book Alice repeated, "Yea, machine has got out of gear, at as early a day as practicable the value of property assessed in the several counties of the State. Adopted.

treated her not to weep, she folded me so closely to her, said, 'Darling, innocent the State. Adopted.

treated her not to weep, she folded me so closely to her, said, 'Darling, innocent shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Mabel, through all the long weary years thought the state. BILLS PASSED. An act to regulate marriages in this

An act for the benefit of the estate of Stephen E. Nash. An act to remove the disabilities of Ira D. Oglesby, a minor of DeSoto county. An act incorporating the City Hotel Comoany of Natchez. An act for the protection of the Capitol building. An act to remove the civil disabilities of Thomas J. Harris, a minor of Panola coun-An act to remove the civil disabilities of you and father were very pale; and when William D. Tisdale, a minor of Kemper I asked after her, you both forbade me to Northeastern Railroad Company. An act to remove the civil disabilitie Robert S. Clark, a minor of Attala county. An act for the relief of the civil disabilities of Martin Nalty, a minor of Lincoln horne county, State of Mississippi.

John M. Davis, a minor of Hinds county.

An act to incorporate William H. Stevens Lodge, No. 121. Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, of the city of Vicksburg. of certain counties in those sections where Mr. Henderson—An act in relation to the meeting of the Board of Supervisors of relates to the counties of Madison, Lowndes Mabel, soothingly. "Tell me the story of the map where the victim lived.

and Noxubec. An act to revive and continue in force Cooper, former Sheriff and Tax Collector of sixty days from the passage of this act an act to provide for the payment of Constitu-

Comments of Northern Democratic Papers on Gov. Alcorn's

From the Philadelphia Age. No one will deny the fact that Mississippi has been pretty thoroughly reconstructed, according to the most approved Radical plan. Military power reigned supreme in that locality for years. Bullets, not ballots, controlled the elections. of bread?" White men were subordinated to negroes the Radical plan carried out in all its little pleading face is not that of an im- point also. details. This being the political status of postor," thought Mabel as she inquired. Mississippi, the message of Governor Alcorn, a Radical and Senator elect, may be taken as good evidence of the effects timidly.

of reconstruction in that State. Here follows the statistics contained in These facts are not culled from political papers, and colored by partisan views. They are reported to the Legislature, in an official form by the Governor of the State, who is a prominent and trusted ciary Committee be and are hereby instruc- that notice and attention in the North, sults is not the best suited for a State or people. When both the moral and material interests of a Commonwealth are undermined, it is time for the people to demand a change. Governor Alcorn shows that such have been the results of the Recon-wanted his assistance in getting his disqualifications removed. The following colloguy ensued: General Young-Mr. Stevens, I am a Representative elect from Georgia, but I was a general in the army and they won't let me take my seat. Old Thad-The h-Il they won't. A Repsentative, with the credentials of your state, and a general in the army, and they refuse you your seat?

Gen. Young—Mr. Stevens, I was a Major General in the Confederate army, Old Thad -Well, of course you are going to act with us. Gen. Young—No sir, I won't. I fought you in the battle field, and I expect to fight you in Congress. I am a straight-out Dem-in the rebel army, and you come here ask-ing me to help you. I like your impudence, and I'll be d-d if I don't.

Old Thad .- A Democrat, a Major General

THE WAYS OF THE WORLD.

-OR.-THE LITTLE BEGGAR GIRL.

"How very lonely it seems to-night, mother," said Mable Richardson, as she and ber mother," sat alone in the twilight. evening than any other?" inquried Mrs.

Richardson. "All day long my heart has been heavy, grieved child to-night, that it fills my very soul with sadness. There have been old memories crowding upon my brain, and a gentle face and form have Belgaved, then forsaken since the world So down with another old addage. seemed to be about me. Mother, nine

"Mabel, why do you speak for her.— Have not you been forbidden? I have fancied all these years that you had forgotten her." Mrs. Richardson was very tenance of the sufferer, and she trembled pale as she said this, and turned her head | violently agitation. "My dear, dear mother, how gently have you been deceived in believing that for one moment I could forget my gentle name is Horace Richardson?" and only sister. Although I was but eight years of age, how well do I remem- "Mabel, have you forgotten your sister young men; a modest reserve, with holding the chancery court in the Ninth kissed me, and wept as though her heart good by in your little trundle bed?" and her last words to me were, 'Mabel, pressed the poor dying sister to her heart, do not forget your miserable sister Alice. and mingled with their tears together. Mr. Nabers, An act to authorize Silas I am going to leave you for a long, long It was a long, and story that Alice the intercourse permitted you. High and his wife, Clemmie High, residents time-perhaps forever! She was great told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and, to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and to is more unbecoming, when one property told; of her love, how betrayed, and to is more unbecoming, when one property told is not to the love. orphan, as their legitimate child.

If y agitated, I well knew, although I was hide her shame, her father had driven company is engaged in profitable and I wept her from home; how, two months after, teresting conversation, than that mostly she knelt beside me, and prayed long and face Mabel had so longed to behold was Mr. Mitchell, of Pontotoc, An act to remove the civil disabilities of Mahettable Williamson, of Union County.

Mr. Davis, An act for the speedy enforcemr. Mr. Davis, An act for the speedy enforcemr. Mr. Mitchell, of Pontotoc, An act to refervently. She prayed for my father, and for you, mother; and when she breathed your name she buried her face mr. Mahet had so longed to behold was now before her, alas! how changed!

"Oh, my good angel!" said Alice,
"I knew my heavenly Father would love her? To-night the winds moan, as up through great tribulations, Afice did nine years ago. The next morning after her departure I remember An act relative to the New Orleans and speak of her. But, mother, I think you your heart desired it?"

fered in her long absence, none save God lows:

of Alice leaving us, and then I'll forgetno-I will cease to speak of her." you now. Go to your room, it is getting that the young man and woman, with it. He has purchased a Texas lexicon and late. Good night." That night Mabel slept but little.—

tation. She arose early and scated herself at her window, and was gazing listragged girl, about nine years of age,

"What is your name?"

"Mabel Graham," replied the child, She said she was hungry and cold, and was. I told him that I did not require poor child sobbed aloud. looked up in surprise.

such a nice large house as this." "That makes little difference, darling. heed. I will go and see what I can do for your mother. You lead the way and I will was Georgiana] you heard what Humfollow. But wait; are you not hungry?" phreys says. Do you accept the invitainverse way and I way follow. But wait; are you not hungry?" phreys says. Do you accept the invitader our shoomakers to remove from shoes before permitting anything to eat since yesterday morning; lenient toward his faults and cherish his brought into our dwelling. Here's but I would not tell my mother, for she virtues; will you never be guilty of erate hight and of good breadth

He called on "Old Thad," and told him he that fatal disease, consumption. Upon jeers of the world." seeing Mabel, she reached out her hand and said feebly:

> "You have come to see how the brokenhearted die! "You are very ill," replied Mabel. "Yes, and it will soon be over; and He that careth for the weak and erring Judge."

"You are very weak, too much so to converse now. Let me prepare you some broth which will strengthen you. "Net now. This poor, frail body has no need of earthly nourishment, for it is and my hours are numbered." India and Burmah. Now there are 80,000 hand, and drawing her to her, chasped Pease's power to plunder the State. Aw church members and 2,000 native preachers. her to her breast. Her lips moved, and with the dirty swindler.—Iuka Gazette.

occasionally the words "Lord," and cannot keep a green; we that she was imploring Divine aid to pro- is death to the woman.

solemn scene. The child sobbed violents a woman talk about for lover's finely, and her face in the bed-clothes, A few moments passed in silence, save delights in telling of h "Why do you feel any more lonely this the moans of the sick, and the sighs of woman would can be the stricken child.

and the wind moans so much like a thoughts Mabel could not put away; and ther lovers? Who has not them.

nicet began ! The silence was at last broken by the quired her name. -"Mabel Richardson," she replied. There was a strange light in the couns marriage.

away that Mabel might not discover her "Mabel Richardson!" she grouned aloud, and sank back upon her pillow. "My name seems to distress you?" "It is all over now. Your father's of silly, thoughtless

"It is. Do you know him?" ber the night she came to my bedside and Alice, that nine years ago kissed you affectation, is the only safe path. Co would break. She bade me good by, Mabel had no words to answer, but those who are truly serious and c ly agitated, I well knew, although I was hide her shame, her father had driven company is engagest in profitable and until the grey dawn of morning, before little Mabel came into the world. She part should be trifling and talking complete the little Mabel came into the world. She part should be trifling and talking complete the little Mabel came into the world. She part should be trifling and talking complete told of her poverty, her wants, her cares she went out in the cold and darkness, and struggles. God be pittiful! The

Mabel, through all the long weary years of the future, do not forget me—do not they comfort me," and as the sound died are in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future is the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future is the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future is the future in the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future is the future in the hamis of the enemy, the publication of the future is the future in the hamis of the enemy is the hamis of the enemy is the hamis of the enemy is the ha let the story of my weakness turn your from the lips, the soul too fled, to enter departments are administered affections from me-love me, love me! upon a new life, "where the wicked commissaries, the taxes flow into a cash-box, the roads and highway And I promised, child that I was, that cease from troubling, and the weary are nearly destroyed, the bridges are blown her memory with me should be sacred, at rest." We will have no burdens there, whole villages have disappeared from and the vow has been well kept; for, bless God, no dying; and Love will stroyed. The whole country must be mother, whatever her fault, or however stand her golden font, and baptize the stroyed. The whole country must be a great her shame, she is my sister, and I redeemed of the Lord, who have come bricklayers. That can be done by means

> A Rich Marriage Ceremony. From the DeSoto (Wis.) Republican.

A number of years ago there dwelt in perhaps he able to introduce converge me only silenced my childish inquiry to save your grief from my father's sight. Tell Charles Whiting. If ever a human beme, was it not so? You can not say that ing was overstocked with good humor and waggishness it was that same Whiting. the "You are right, my child. You little He was up to all sorts of innocent tricks, An act for the benefit of J. D. Moorman, a citizen of Calhoun county, and for other purposes.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of Wm. Beauchamp, a minor of Hinds county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Hinds county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Hinds county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of John McGee, a minor of Oktibbeha county.

An ac

An act for the relief of Lafayette Jones, and myself know. How I have prayed to behold her face again, to fold my arms to behold her face again, to fold my arms to be hold her face again, to fold my arms to be hold her face again, to fold my arms to be a special to be hold her face again, to fold my arms to be a special to be hold her face again, to fold my arms to be a special to be hold her face again, to fold my arms to be a special to be sippi Manufacturing and Emigration Company.

about her, to feel that she was indeed was accosted, on the 4th of July, by a sleek looking young man, and in silvery the Austin Labley.—Our (Calveston pany.) An act to remove the civil disabilities of Robert W. Van Allen, a minor of Amite county.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of I entreated of him not to forsake her, An act to remove the civil disabilities of Albert Tact, a minor of Leak county.

An act to change the name of Emma B. Carroll and Archer Latrobe Carroll to that of Cooper.

An act to remove the civil disabilities of him hot to lorsake her, but of no avail. I knew she was going alone and unprotected out into a cold anything of the kind, had no books nor forms; yet, I was determined to do things the lorsake her, but of no avail. I knew she was going anything of the kind, had no books nor forms; yet, I was determined to do things the lorsake her, but of no avail. I knew she was going anything of the kind, had no books nor forms; yet, I was determined to do things the lorsake her, but of no avail. I knew she was going anything of the kind, had no books nor forms; yet, I was determined to do things of Cooper.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association, in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate the St. James Ladies' Aid Association in Port Gibson, Ciaiborne county, State of Mississippi.

An act to incorporate William II. Stevens keep her from despair, by telling her I arms one copy of the Revised Statutes, one ditto Webster's unabridged dictionation one distortion on the webster of the countries of the "Do not weep, dear mother," replied Pope's Essay on Man, and a sectional part every one of these guests voted aga

o—I will cease to speak of her."

the room, and seated myself behind it, I they said them of their plighted falls, and "To-morrow, my child. I can not tell in trumpet tones called the case. With and spirit—that they went for it and bline great alacrity, stepped up before me. is now suggested in its study, and when ent-Having sworn them on the dictionary to he will return but not the then Her mind was too much filled with answer well and truly all the questions I thoughts of Alice, and her mother's agi- was about to ask, I proceeded. I told the young man that, being an entire stranger, I should have to ask him to give bail for lessly out into the street, when a little the costs. Having heard this so frequently in court, I thought it indispensable. They feel timble backful and came under the window, and, looking sorrowfully up into her face, said,

He answered that if I meant the fee for the moment they are addressed by sorrowfully up into her face, said, "Please ma'am will you give me a piece posit it then and there. As I did not quire graceful, easy manner know exactly what I did mean, I mag- the best they can at home, as we There was something in the manner of nanimously waived that portion of the and the whole industrial system broken the little mendicant that attracted Mabel's ceremony. I then told him it would be up and rendered comparatively inoperative. A negro was also chosen to the was at that moment feeling so wretched to be was willing to do when he is and we was willing to do when he is and we was willing to do when he is and we was willing to do when he is and we was willing to do when he is and we was also chosen to the Senate of the United States, and thus herself, were hard to tell. "Surely that arrived home, and I then waived that > they were old enough to enter into that ple we have ever known in company are blessed state, I proceeded to tie the knot. Home is the school for all the best things I asked him if he was willing to take especially for good marraers. "I have a mother, and she is sick .- that woman to be his wife. He said he for me to see if I could not get her something to eat, or she should die. Oh, I flect a few minutes if he wished. I told things which every one thinks also don't want my mother to die ?" and the him she looked like a fine girl, and I had no doubt she was; but if the sequel prov-"There, there! dry your tears, and I ed he had been taken in, I did not want to and the high-herded share are will go with you to see your sick mother." be held responsible. I said he must love, abuses, and ought not to be le The child wiped away her tears, and honor, and obey her as long as she lived; he must not be "snappy" around the and no harm results from "Why, we live in a little room; not house, nor spit tobacco juice on the floor, parts of the body the all of which he promised faithfully to

I then read a little from the Essay on part of the body. Is one of the cylis of Man, including that passage, "Man by every father and mother and brother

"Go in peace; sin no more." I bade the happy pair a final adieu.

A bill has been introduced in the legisla-ture to abolish all Boards of School Direcno need of earthly nourishment, for it is nearly ready to return to dust. I must not waste what few remaining moments of life are left me for I have much to say, and my hours are numbered."

still be done in Season of Season Oriental and Branches of Ready and Branches of Ready and Branches of Ready and Superintendage of the proof of the groots of old garrets and stables they have no idea of doing any such thing. We will bet our ears it is a scheme of that release to the proof of th and my hours are numbered."

Here the speaker paused, and looking anxiously at her child, reached out her hand, and drawing her to her, clasped lentless raseal. Pease, to get clear of the good rectors to give the Superintendents a good chapter to assist him to swindle the State out of as much money as possible. We hope the Legislature will put some check on Mr. Pease's power to plunder the State. Away withstanding her minority.

The Nineteenth Century, a periodleni ablished in Charleston, thus breats this much-mooted point:

can't. Women carry with "Savier," were heard. Enough to know make it known. What is speed to the new tent her child. Mabel Richardson's eyes macak. Eve would have kept the apple filled with tears as she gazed upon the secret. He ye faithful, Who ever her Aye, there is always a secret to such women refined in their parlor converdestitution and suffering, and these tion. Whoever heard of a noman tella-His yows after all were the yows of a man, the dissipation of men ? Man had been love or a woman, Great women don't. Women never bills to God! sick lady, who turned to Mabel and inc John (New Brunswick) girl, who

Advice to Young Ludies.

not tell her lover she was worth log-millions in her own right uptil after her

Be cheerfull, but not pleasure. But

41000 PROSERATE PRANCE

Who Will Relp Her 7-Officials Murying .. Harder and Incendiarism-All, all Lost but Honor-A dreadful Picture.

immense loans if the government to create confidence in itself. To it be if such is not the case?

Having placed a table in the middle of of them to task for their to Having established to my satisfaction cannot lay off if we try, when whe that they wanted to get married, and that smoon strangers. The most agreeable p wants but little here below, but wants that little long." As a final to the scene, I delivered the following exordium:—

The right waists, the low

"Generally worn; and yet all attempts to generally worn; and yet all attempts to gene ty years we have worn this kind of head The generous Humphrey having placed covering, and we like it better than an will be my judge. He is an impartial a fifty cent check in my unwilling palm, other; we have tried hard to like the land this is the experience of thousands. About as the high hard but is, it does keep the head more comfortable, it does maintain a memoryble temperature, it does thei better than any other form of head covering, and so let us continue to knock them ugainst because is attles and branches of trees. It they serve